

General Assembly

Substitute Bill No. 5522

February Session, 2010

_HB05522TRA___042610_

AN ACT CONCERNING JUVENILE MATTERS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Assembly convened:

- 1 Section 1. Subsection (c) of section 46b-129 of the 2010 supplement
- to the general statutes, as amended by section 4 of public act 09-194, is
- 3 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective
- October 1, 2010): 4

- (c) The preliminary hearing on the order of temporary custody or 6 order to appear or the first hearing on a petition filed pursuant to subsection (a) of this section shall be held in order for the court to: (1) 8 Advise the parent or guardian of the allegations contained in all 9 petitions and applications that are the subject of the hearing and the
- 10 parent's or guardian's right to counsel pursuant to subsection (b) of
- 11 section 46b-135; (2) assure that an attorney, and where appropriate, a
- 12 separate guardian ad litem has been appointed to represent the child
- 13 or youth in accordance with subsection (b) of section 46b-123e and
- 14 sections 46b-129a, as amended by this act, and 46b-136; (3) upon
- 15 request, appoint an attorney to represent the respondent when the
- 16 respondent is unable to afford representation, in accordance with
- 17 subsection (b) of section 46b-123e; (4) advise the parent or guardian of
- 18 the right to a hearing on the petitions and applications, to be held not
- 19 later than ten days after the date of the preliminary hearing if the
- 20 hearing is pursuant to an order of temporary custody or an order to 22 (6) make any interim orders, including visitation, that the court 23 determines are in the best interests of the child or youth. The court, 24 after a hearing pursuant to this subsection, shall order specific steps 25 the commissioner and the parent or guardian shall take for the parent 26 or guardian to regain or to retain custody of the child or youth; (7) take 27 steps to determine the identity of the father of the child or youth, 28 including ordering genetic testing, if necessary, and order service of 29 the petition and notice of the hearing date, if any, to be made upon 30 him; (8) if the person named as the father appears, and admits that he 31 is the father, provide him and the mother with the notices that comply 32 with section 17b-27 and provide them with the opportunity to sign a 33 paternity acknowledgment and affirmation on forms that comply with 34 section 17b-27. Such documents shall be executed and filed in 35 accordance with chapter 815y and a copy delivered to the clerk of the 36 superior court for juvenile matters; (9) in the event that the person 37 named as a father appears and denies that he is the father of the child 38 or youth, advise him that he may have no further standing in any 39 proceeding concerning the child, and either order genetic testing to 40 determine paternity or direct him to execute a written denial of 41 paternity on a form promulgated by the Office of the Chief Court 42 Administrator. Upon execution of such a form by the putative father, 43 the court may remove him from the case and afford him no further 44 standing in the case or in any subsequent proceeding regarding the 45 child or youth until such time as paternity is established by formal 46 acknowledgment or adjudication in a court of competent jurisdiction; 47 (10) identify any person or persons related to the child or youth by 48 blood or marriage residing in this state who might serve as licensed 49 foster parents or temporary custodians and order the Commissioner of Children and Families to investigate and [determine] report to the 50 51 court, not later than thirty days after the preliminary hearing, the 52 appropriateness of placement of the child or youth with such relative 53 or relatives; and (11) in accordance with the provisions of the Interstate 54 Compact on the Placement of Children pursuant to section 17a-175, 55 identify any person or persons related to the child or youth by blood or show cause; (5) accept a plea regarding the truth of such allegations;

- 56 marriage residing out of state who might serve as licensed foster
- 57 parents or temporary custodians, and order the Commissioner of
- 58 Children and Families to investigate and determine, within a
- 59 reasonable time, the appropriateness of placement of the child or
- 60 youth with such relative or relatives.
- 61 Sec. 2. Section 46b-129 of the 2010 supplement to the general
- statutes, as amended by section 4 of public act 09-194, is amended by
- adding subsection (s) as follows (Effective October 1, 2010):
- (NEW) (s) Counsel for the child or youth shall have access to the
- child's or youth's medical, dental, mental health and other health care
- 66 records, school and educational records, and shall have the right to
- 67 interview school personnel, caretakers, health care providers, mental
- 68 health professionals and other persons who have assessed the child or
- 69 youth or provided care to the child or youth. The release of such
- 70 records to counsel and such interviews shall not constitute a waiver of
- 71 confidentiality of the records and any disclosed communications.
- 72 Counsel for the child or youth shall have the right to assert or waive
- 73 any privilege on behalf of the child or youth.
- Sec. 3. Subsection (b) of section 46b-124 of the general statutes is
- 75 repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective
- 76 October 1, 2010):
- 77 (b) All records of cases of juvenile matters, as provided in section
- 78 46b-121, except delinquency proceedings, or any part thereof, and all
- 79 records of appeals from probate brought to the superior court for
- 30 juvenile matters pursuant to subsection (b) of section 45a-186, shall be
- 81 confidential and for the use of the court in juvenile matters, and open
- 82 to inspection or disclosure to any third party, including bona fide
- 83 researchers commissioned by a state agency, only upon order of the
- 84 Superior Court, except that: (1) The records concerning any matter
- 85 transferred from a court of probate pursuant to section 45a-623 or
- 86 subsection (g) of section 45a-715 or any appeal from probate to the
- 87 superior court for juvenile matters pursuant to subsection (b) of section

88 45a-186 shall be available to the court of probate from which such 89 matter was transferred or from which such appeal was taken; (2) such 90 records shall be available to (A) the attorney representing the child or 91 youth, including the Division of Public Defender Services, in any 92 proceeding in which such records are relevant, (B) the parents or 93 guardian of the child or youth until such time as the child or youth 94 reaches the age of majority or becomes emancipated, (C) an adult 95 adopted person in accordance with the provisions of sections 45a-736, 96 45a-737 and 45a-743 to 45a-757, inclusive, (D) employees of the 97 Division of Criminal Justice who in the performance of their duties require access to such records, (E) employees of the Judicial Branch 98 99 who in the performance of their duties require access to such records, 100 (F) another court under the provisions of subsection (d) of section 46b-101 115j, (G) the subject of the record, upon submission of satisfactory 102 proof of the subject's identity, pursuant to guidelines prescribed by the 103 Office of the Chief Court Administrator, provided the subject has 104 reached the age of majority or has been emancipated, (H) the 105 Department of Children and Families, and (I) the employees of the 106 Commission on Child Protection who in the performance of their 107 duties require access to such records; and (3) all or part of the records 108 concerning a youth in crisis with respect to whom a court order was 109 issued prior to January 1, 2010, may be made available to the 110 Department of Motor Vehicles, provided such records are relevant to such order. Any records of cases of juvenile matters, or any part 111 112 thereof, provided to any persons, governmental and private agencies, 113 and institutions pursuant to this section shall not be disclosed, directly 114 or indirectly, to any third party not specified in subsection (d) of this 115 section, except as provided by court order or in the report required 116 under section 54-76d or 54-91a. Psychiatric or psychological reports 117 resulting from an examination ordered by the court in such juvenile 118 matter shall be retained in the possession of a court officer.

119 Sec. 4. Section 46b-129a of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2010):

In proceedings in the Superior Court under section 46b-129, as amended by this act: (1) The court may order the child, the parents, the guardian, or other persons accused by a competent witness with abusing the child, to be examined by one or more competent physicians, psychiatrists or psychologists appointed by the court, provided psychiatric or psychological reports resulting from such examination shall be retained in the possession of a court officer and shall be confidential and open to inspection or disclosure to any third party only upon order of the Superior Court; (2) a child shall be represented by counsel knowledgeable about representing such children who shall be appointed by the court to represent the child and to act as guardian ad litem for the child. The primary role of any counsel for the child, including the counsel who also serves as guardian ad litem, shall be to advocate for the child in accordance with the Rules of Professional Conduct. When a conflict arises between the child's wishes or position and that which counsel for the child believes is in the best [interest] interests of the child, the court shall appoint another person as guardian ad litem for the child. The guardian ad litem shall speak on behalf of the best [interest] interests of the child and is not required to be an attorney-at-law but shall be knowledgeable about the needs and protection of children. In the event that a separate guardian ad litem is appointed, the person previously serving as both counsel and guardian ad litem for the child shall continue to serve as counsel for the child and a different person shall be appointed as guardian ad litem, unless the court for good cause also appoints a different person as counsel for the child. No person who has served as both counsel and guardian ad litem for a child shall thereafter serve solely as the child's guardian ad litem. The counsel and guardian ad litem's fees, if any, shall be paid by the parents or guardian, or the estate of the child, or, if such persons are unable to pay, by the court; (3) the privilege against the disclosure of communications between husband and wife shall be inapplicable and either may testify as to any relevant matter; and (4) evidence that the child has been abused or has sustained a nonaccidental injury shall constitute prima facie evidence that shall be sufficient to support an adjudication that such child is uncared for or neglected.

Sec. 5. Section 46b-134 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2010):

Prior to the disposition of the case of any child convicted of a delinquent act, investigation shall be made of the facts as specified in this section by the probation officer, and until such investigation has been completed and the results thereof placed before the judge, no disposition of the child's case shall be made. Such investigation shall consist of an examination of the parentage and surroundings of the child and the child's age, habits and history, and shall include also an inquiry into the home conditions, habits and character of the child's parents or guardians. Such investigation shall include an inquiry into the circumstances of the offense, the attitude of the complainant or victim, the criminal record, the present condition of the child and any damages suffered by the victim including medical expenses, loss of earnings and property loss. If the child is or legally should be in attendance at school, such investigation shall further contain a report of the child's school attendance, adjustment and behavior, the child's individualized education program if the child has been identified pursuant to sections 10-76a to 10-76gg, inclusive, as requiring special education and related services and any recommendations from school officials on conditions of probation if the child is placed on probation pursuant to section 46b-140, which shall be furnished by the school officials to the court upon its request. The court shall, when it is found necessary to the disposition, cause a complete physical or mental examination, or both, to be made of the child by persons professionally qualified to do so. Such examination may include testing to determine whether the child is alcohol-dependent or drug-dependent as defined in section 46b-120, as amended by this act. If the court causes a complete physical or mental examination, or both, to be made of a child whose parents, guardian or custodian is found able to pay in whole or in part the cost thereof, it shall assess as costs against such parents, guardian or custodian, including any agency vested with the legal custody of the child, the expense so incurred and paid for by the court in having such examination performed, to the extent of their

- 191 financial ability to do so. Prior to the disposition of the case of any 192 child convicted of a delinquent act, the court may cause a complete 193 diagnostic examination to be made, unless such information is otherwise available. Such information shall include physical and 194 195 psychological diagnoses and may include medical, psychiatric, 196 neurological, learning disability diagnoses and such other diagnoses as 197 the court deems necessary. If such child is committed to the 198 Department of Children and Families, such information shall be 199 shared with the Department of Children and Families. - Sec. 6. Section 53a-171 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2010):
- (a) A person is guilty of escape from custody if such person (1) escapes from custody, or (2) has been convicted as delinquent, has been committed to the Department of Children and Families, and (A) fails to return from a leave authorized under section 17a-8a, or (B) escapes from [a state or private facility or institution in which such person has been assigned or placed by the Commissioner of Children and Families] the Connecticut Juvenile Training School.
  - (b) If a person has been arrested for, charged with or convicted of a felony, escape from such custody is a class C felony, otherwise, escape from custody is a class A misdemeanor.
- Sec. 7. Section 46b-120 of the 2010 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective from passage):
- The terms used in this chapter shall, in its interpretation and in the interpretation of other statutes, be defined as follows:
- 221 (1) "Child" means any person under [sixteen] eighteen years of age

- who has not been legally emancipated, except that (A) for purposes of delinquency matters and proceedings, "child" means any person (i) under seventeen years of age who has not been legally emancipated, or (ii) seventeen years of age or older who, prior to attaining seventeen years of age, has committed a delinquent act [and] or, subsequent to attaining seventeen years of age, (I) violates any order of the Superior Court or any condition of probation ordered by the Superior Court with respect to [such] a delinquency proceeding, or (II) wilfully fails to appear in response to a summons under section 46b-133, as amended by this act, [with respect to such delinquency proceeding] or at any other court hearing in a delinquency proceeding of which the child had notice, and (B) for purposes of family with service needs matters and proceedings, child means a person under seventeen years of age;
  - (2) (A) "Youth" means any person sixteen or seventeen years of age who has not been legally emancipated, and (B) "youth in crisis" means any person seventeen years of age who has not been legally emancipated and who, within the last two years, (i) has without just cause run away from the parental home or other properly authorized and lawful place of abode, (ii) is beyond the control of the youth's parents, guardian or other custodian, or (iii) has four unexcused absences from school in any one month or ten unexcused absences in any school year;
  - (3) "Abused" means that a child or youth (A) has been inflicted with physical injury or injuries other than by accidental means, (B) has injuries that are at variance with the history given of them, or (C) is in a condition that is the result of maltreatment, including, but not limited to, malnutrition, sexual molestation or exploitation, deprivation of necessities, emotional maltreatment or cruel punishment;
  - (4) A child may be found "mentally deficient" who, by reason of a deficiency of intelligence that has existed from birth or from early age, requires, or will require, for such child's protection or for the protection of others, special care, supervision and control;

- (5) (A) A child may be convicted as "delinquent" who has, [(i)] while under sixteen years of age, (i) violated any federal or state law, except section 53a-172 or 53a-173, or violated a municipal or local ordinance, except an ordinance regulating behavior of a child in a family with service needs, (ii) wilfully failed to appear in response to a summons under section 46b-133, as amended by this act, or at any other court hearing in a delinquency proceeding of which the child had notice, (iii) violated any order of the Superior Court in a delinquency proceeding, except as provided in section 46b-148, or (iv) violated conditions of probation in a delinquency proceeding as ordered by the court;
- (B) A child may be convicted as "delinquent" who has (i) while sixteen years of age, violated any federal or state law, other than (I) an infraction, (II) a violation, (III) a motor vehicle offense or violation [as defined in chapter 248, or] under title 14, (IV) a violation of a municipal or local ordinance, or (V) a violation of section 51-164r, 53a-172 or 53a-173, (ii) while sixteen years of age or older wilfully failed to appear in response to a summons under section 46b-133, as amended by this act, or at any other court hearing in a delinquency proceeding of which the child had notice, (iii) while sixteen years of age or older, violated any order of the Superior Court in a delinquency proceeding, except as provided in section 46b-148, or (iv) while sixteen years of age or older, violated conditions of probation in a delinquency proceeding as ordered by the court;
- (6) A child or youth may be found "dependent" whose home is a suitable one for the child or youth, except for the financial inability of the child's or youth's parents, parent or guardian, or other person maintaining such home, to provide the specialized care the condition of the child or youth requires;
- (7) "Family with service needs" means a family that includes a child [or a youth sixteen] under seventeen years of age who (A) has without just cause run away from the parental home or other properly authorized and lawful place of abode, (B) is beyond the control of the child's or youth's parent, parents, guardian or other custodian, (C) has

- engaged in indecent or immoral conduct, (D) is a truant or habitual truant or who, while in school, has been continuously and overtly defiant of school rules and regulations, or (E) is thirteen years of age or older and has engaged in sexual intercourse with another person and such other person is thirteen years of age or older and not more than two years older or younger than such child or youth;
  - (8) A child or youth may be found "neglected" who (A) has been abandoned, (B) is being denied proper care and attention, physically, educationally, emotionally or morally, (C) is being permitted to live under conditions, circumstances or associations injurious to the well-being of the child or youth, or (D) has been abused;
  - (9) A child or youth may be found "uncared for" who is homeless or whose home cannot provide the specialized care that the physical, emotional or mental condition of the child or youth requires. For the purposes of this section, the treatment of any child or youth by an accredited Christian Science practitioner, in lieu of treatment by a licensed practitioner of the healing arts, shall not of itself constitute neglect or maltreatment;
  - (10) "Delinquent act" means (A) the violation by a child under the age of sixteen of any federal or state law, except the violation of section 53a-172 or 53a-173, or the violation of a municipal or local ordinance, except an ordinance regulating behavior of a child in a family with service needs, (B) the violation by a child sixteen years of age of any federal or state law, other than (i) an infraction, (ii) a violation, (iii) a motor vehicle offense or violation under [chapter 248, or] title 14, (iv) [a] the violation of a municipal or local ordinance, or (v) the violation of section 51-164r, 53a-172 or 53a-173, (C) the wilful failure of a child, including a child who has attained the age of seventeen or older, to appear in response to a summons under section 46b-133, as amended by this act, or at any other court hearing in a delinquency proceeding of which the child has notice, (D) the violation of any order of the Superior Court in a delinquency proceeding by a child, including a child who has attained the age of seventeen or older, except as

- 321 provided in section 46b-148, or (E) the violation of conditions of
- 322 probation in a delinquency proceeding by a child, including a child
- 323 who has attained the age of seventeen or older, as ordered by the
- 324 court;
- 325 (11) "Serious juvenile offense" means (A) the violation of, including
- 326 attempt or conspiracy to violate, [(i)] section 21a-277, 21a-278, 29-33,
- 327 29-34, 29-35, subdivision (2) or (3) of subsection (a) of section 53-21,
- 328 53-80a, 53-202b, 53-202c, 53-390 to 53-392, inclusive, 53a-54a to [53a-
- 329 56a] 53a-57, inclusive, 53a-59 to 53a-60c, inclusive, 53a-70 to 53a-71,
- 330 inclusive, 53a-72b, 53a-86, 53a-92 to 53a-94a, inclusive, 53a-95, 53a-101,
- 331 53a-102a, 53a-103a or 53a-111 to 53a-113, inclusive, subdivision (1) of
- 332 subsection (a) of section 53a-122, subdivision (3) of subsection (a) of
- 333 section 53a-123, section 53a-134, 53a-135, 53a-136a [, 53a-166] or
- 334 53a-167c, subsection (a) of section 53a-174, or section 53a-196a, 53a-211,
- 335 53a-212, 53a-216 or 53a-217b, [by a child, or (ii) section 53a-56b or 53a-
- 336 57 by a child under sixteen years of age,] or (B) running away, without
- just cause, from any secure placement other than home while referred
- as a delinquent child to the Court Support Services Division or
- committed as a delinquent child to the Commissioner of Children and
- 340 Families for a serious juvenile offense;
- 341 (12) "Serious juvenile offender" means any child convicted as
- 342 delinquent for the commission of a serious juvenile offense;
- 343 (13) "Serious juvenile repeat offender" means any child charged
- with the commission of any felony if such child has previously been
- 345 convicted as delinquent or otherwise convicted at any age for two
- violations of any provision of title 21a, 29, 53 or 53a that is designated
- 347 as a felony;
- 348 (14) "Alcohol-dependent" means a psychoactive substance
- 349 dependence on alcohol as that condition is defined in the most recent
- 350 edition of the American Psychiatric Association's "Diagnostic and
- 351 Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders"; and
- 352 (15) "Drug-dependent" means a psychoactive substance dependence on drugs as that condition is defined in the most recent edition of the 353 354 American Psychiatric Association's "Diagnostic and Statistical Manual 355 of Mental Disorders". No child shall be classified as drug-dependent 356 who is dependent (A) upon a morphine-type substance as an incident 357 to current medical treatment of a demonstrable physical disorder other 358 than drug dependence, or (B) upon amphetamine-type, ataractic, 359 barbiturate-type, hallucinogenic or other stimulant and depressant 360 substances as an incident to current medical treatment of a 361 demonstrable physical or psychological disorder, or both, other than 362 drug dependence.

- Sec. 8. Section 46b-124 of the general statutes is amended by adding subsection (k) as follows (Effective July 1, 2010):
- 365 (NEW) (k) Records of cases of juvenile matters involving 366 delinquency proceedings, or any part thereof, containing information 367 that a child has been convicted as delinquent for a violation of 368 subdivision (e) of section 1-1h, subsection (c) of section 14-147, 369 subsection (a) of section 14-215, section 14-222, subsection (b) of section 370 14-223, subsection (b) or (c) of section 14-224, section 30-88a or 371 subsection (b) of section 30-89, shall be disclosed to the Department of Motor Vehicles for administrative use in determining whether 372 373 administrative sanctions regarding such child's motor vehicle 374 operator's license are warranted. Records disclosed pursuant to this 375 subsection shall not be further disclosed.
- Sec. 9. Section 46b-127 of the 2010 supplement to the general statutes is amended by adding subsection (f) as follows (Effective July 1, 2010):
  - (NEW) (f) Upon the motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, the case of any youth age sixteen, except a case that has been transferred to the regular criminal docket of the Superior Court pursuant to subsection (a) or (b) of this section, which is pending on the youthful offender docket, regular criminal docket of the Superior Court or any docket for the presentment of defendants in motor vehicle matters, where the youth is charged with committing any offense or violation for which a term of imprisonment may be imposed, other than a violation of section 14-227a or 14-227g, may, before trial or before the entry of a guilty plea, be transferred to the docket for juvenile matters if (1) the youth is alleged to have committed such offense or violation on or after January 1, 2010, and (2) after a hearing considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the prior history of the youth, the court determines that the programs and services available pursuant to a proceeding in the superior court for juvenile matters would more appropriately address the needs of the youth and that the youth and the community would be better served by treating the youth as a delinquent. Upon ordering such transfer, the court shall vacate any pleas entered in the matter and advise the youth of the youth's rights, and the youth shall (A) enter pleas on the docket for juvenile matters in the jurisdiction where the youth resides, and (B) be subject to prosecution as a delinquent child. The decision of the court concerning the transfer of a youth's case from the youthful offender docket, regular criminal docket of the Superior Court or any docket for the presentment of defendants in motor vehicle matters shall not be a final judgment for purposes of appeal.

Sec. 10. Subsection (d) of section 46b-133 of the 2010 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2010):

(d) The court or detention supervisor may turn such child over to a youth service program created for such purpose, if such course is practicable, or such child may be detained pending a hearing which shall be held on the business day next following the child's arrest. No child shall be detained after such hearing or held in detention pursuant to a court order unless it appears from the available facts that there is probable cause to believe that the child has committed the acts alleged, there is no less restrictive alternative available and that there is (1) a strong probability that the child will run away prior to the court hearing or disposition, (2) a strong probability that the child will commit or attempt to commit other offenses injurious to the child or to the community prior to the court disposition, (3) probable cause to 419 believe that the child's continued residence in the child's home 420 pending disposition poses a risk to the child or the community because 421 of the serious and dangerous nature of the act or acts the child is 422 alleged to have committed, (4) a need to hold the child for another 423 jurisdiction, (5) a need to hold the child to assure the child's 424 appearance before the court, in view of the child's previous failure to 425 respond to the court process, or (6) the child has violated one or more 426 of the conditions of a suspended detention order. Such probable cause 427 may be shown by sworn affidavit in lieu of testimony. No child shall 428 be released from detention who is alleged to have committed a serious 429 juvenile offense except by order of a judge of the Superior Court. Any 430 child confined in a community correctional center or lockup shall be 431 held in an area separate and apart, with sight and sound separation, 432 from any adult detainee, except in the case of a nursing infant, and no 433 child shall at any time be held in solitary confinement. When a female 434 child is held in custody, she shall, as far as possible, be in the charge of a woman attendant. 435

- Sec. 11. Section 46b-137 of the 2010 supplement to the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2010):
  - (a) Any admission, confession or statement, written or oral, made by a child under the age of sixteen to a police officer or Juvenile Court official shall be inadmissible in any proceeding concerning the alleged delinquency of the child making such admission, confession or statement unless made by such child in the presence of the child's parent or parents or guardian and after the parent or parents or guardian and child have been advised (1) of the child's right to retain counsel, or if unable to afford counsel, to have counsel appointed on the child's behalf, (2) of the child's right to refuse to make any statements, and (3) that any statements the child makes may be introduced into evidence against the child.
  - (b) Any admission, confession or statement, written or oral, made by a child sixteen years of age to a police officer or Juvenile Court

- 526 (3) "Abused" means that a child or youth (A) has been inflicted with
- 527 physical injury or injuries other than by accidental means, (B) has
- 528 injuries that are at variance with the history given of them, or (C) is in
- 529 a condition that is the result of maltreatment, including, but not
- 530 limited to, malnutrition, sexual molestation or exploitation,
- 531 deprivation of necessities, emotional maltreatment or cruel
- 532 punishment;
- 533 (4) A child may be found "mentally deficient" who, by reason of a
- deficiency of intelligence that has existed from birth or from early age,
- 535 requires, or will require, for such child's protection or for the - protection of others, special care, supervision and control;
- (5) (A) A child may be convicted as "delinquent" who has, [(i)] while
- 538 under sixteen years of age, (i) violated any federal or state law, except
- 539 section 53a-172 or 53a-173, or violated a municipal or local ordinance,
- 540 except an ordinance regulating behavior of a child in a family with
- service needs, (ii) wilfully failed to appear in response to a summons
- 542 under section 46b-133, as amended by this act, or at any other court
- 543 hearing in a delinquency proceeding of which the child had notice, (iii)
- 544 violated any order of the Superior Court in a delinquency proceeding,
- 545 except as provided in section 46b-148, or (iv) violated conditions of
- 546 probation in a delinquency proceeding as ordered by the court;
- 547 (B) A child may be convicted as "delinquent" who has (i) while
- 548 sixteen or seventeen years of age, violated any federal or state law,
- other than (I) an infraction, (II) a violation, (III) a motor vehicle offense

- or violation [as defined in chapter 248, or] under title 14, (IV) a violation of a municipal or local ordinance, or (V) a violation of section 51-164r, 53a-172 or 53a-173, (ii) while sixteen years of age or older, wilfully failed to appear in response to a summons under section 46b-133, as amended by this act, or at any other court hearing in a delinquency proceeding of which the child had notice, (iii) while sixteen years of age or older, violated any order of the Superior Court in a delinquency proceeding, except as provided in section 46b-148, or (iv) while sixteen years of age or older, violated conditions of probation in a delinquency proceeding as ordered by the court;
  - (6) A child or youth may be found "dependent" whose home is a suitable one for the child or youth, except for the financial inability of the child's or youth's parents, parent or guardian, or other person maintaining such home, to provide the specialized care the condition of the child or youth requires;
  - (7) "Family with service needs" means a family that includes a child [or a youth] under eighteen years of age who (A) has without just cause run away from the parental home or other properly authorized and lawful place of abode, (B) is beyond the control of the child's or youth's parent, parents, guardian or other custodian, (C) has engaged in indecent or immoral conduct, (D) is a truant or habitual truant or who, while in school, has been continuously and overtly defiant of school rules and regulations, or (E) is thirteen years of age or older and has engaged in sexual intercourse with another person and such other person is thirteen years of age or older and not more than two years older or younger than such child or youth;

- 622 (12) "Serious juvenile offender" means any child convicted as 623 delinquent for the commission of a serious juvenile offense;
- 624 (13) "Serious juvenile repeat offender" means any child charged
- 625 with the commission of any felony if such child has previously been
- 626 convicted as delinquent or otherwise convicted at any age for two
- of violations of any provision of title 21a, 29, 53 or 53a that is designated
- 628 as a felony;
- 629 (14) "Alcohol-dependent" means a psychoactive substance
- dependence on alcohol as that condition is defined in the most recent
- 631 edition of the American Psychiatric Association's "Diagnostic and
- 632 Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders"; and
- (15) "Drug-dependent" means a psychoactive substance dependence
- on drugs as that condition is defined in the most recent edition of the
- 635 American Psychiatric Association's "Diagnostic and Statistical Manual
- of Mental Disorders". No child shall be classified as drug-dependent
- 637 who is dependent (A) upon a morphine-type substance as an incident
- 638 to current medical treatment of a demonstrable physical disorder other
- 639 than drug dependence, or (B) upon amphetamine-type, ataractic,
- 640 barbiturate-type, hallucinogenic or other stimulant and depressant
- 641 substances as an incident to current medical treatment of a
- demonstrable physical or psychological disorder, or both, other than
- 643 drug dependence.
- Sec. 13. Section 46b-127 of the 2010 supplement to the general
- statutes, as amended by section 84 of public act 09-7 of the September
- 646 special session, is amended by adding subsection (f) as follows
- 647 (Effective July 1, 2012):

(NEW) (f) Upon the motion of any party or upon the court's own motion, the case of any youth age sixteen or seventeen, except a case that has been transferred to the regular criminal docket of the Superior Court pursuant to subsection (a) or (b) of this section, which is pending on the youthful offender docket, regular criminal docket of the Superior Court or any docket for the presentment of defendants in motor vehicle matters, where the youth is charged with committing any offense or violation for which a term of imprisonment may be imposed, other than a violation of section 14-227a or 14-227g, may, before trial or before the entry of a guilty plea, be transferred to the docket for juvenile matters if (1) the youth is alleged to have committed such offense or violation on or after January 1, 2010, at the age of sixteen, or is alleged to have committed such offense or violation on or after July 1, 2012, at the age of seventeen, and (2) after a hearing considering the facts and circumstances of the case and the prior history of the youth, the court determines that the programs and services available pursuant to a proceeding in the superior court for juvenile matters would more appropriately address the needs of the youth and that the youth and the community would be better served by treating the youth as a delinquent. Upon ordering such transfer, the court shall vacate any pleas entered in the matter and advise the youth of the youth's rights, and the youth shall (A) enter pleas on the docket for juvenile matters in the jurisdiction where the youth resides, and (B) be subject to prosecution as a delinquent child. The decision of the court concerning the transfer of a youth's case from the youthful offender docket, regular criminal docket of the Superior Court or any docket for the presentment of defendants in motor vehicle matters shall not be a final judgment for purposes of appeal.

Sec. 14. Section 46b-137 of the 2010 supplement to the general statutes, as amended by section 87 of public act 09-7 of the September special session, is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective July 1, 2012):

(a) Any admission, confession or statement, written or oral, made by a child under the age of sixteen to a police officer or Juvenile Court
